Educational Training Description:

This workshop seeks to introduce participants to some of the essential elements of successful cross-cultural supervision. These elements are meant to further shared understanding, engender trust, and provide the ground for increased tolerance of ambiguity and disagreement. The focus of this workshop is development and enhancement of the supervisory relationship.

Speaker: Shadee Hardy, MSW, LICSW

Learning Objectives:

- Discuss a method which helps one to entertain contradictory ideas and viewpoints, and to appreciate the ways in which they complement one another.
- Review important concepts of clinical supervision that help to enhance the cross-cultural supervisor/supervisee relationship.
- Describe the integral aspects of self-awareness development and its importance to the cross-cultural supervisory relationship.
